From China

Li Yuhuan:

The windmill road

In 2013, wind farms began to be built on Bai yan Mountain, and in late September 2014 they began to be connected to the grid.

And at the same time as the construction of wind farms, wind companies in more than 10 kilometers of road on both sides of the plant with golden chrysanthemums, every time the golden chrysanthemums in full bloom, yellow and green.

Dongqian lake

It is a large freshwater lake in Yinzhou District, Ningbo in the Zhejiang, China. It has a surface area of 20 square kilometres (7.7 sq mi), and is a long established scenic destination in China. There the scenery is very beautiful, and the air is fresh.

Ye Ziyi:

Jiangshantou

This is a sunflower field .
When you are surrounded by sunflowers
You can feel the sunshine.
All the troubles are gone.

There are lot of
sunflowers
